*"The story of life
is quicker than the wink of an eye,
the story of love
is hello and goodbye...
until we meet again."
-Jimi Hendrix*

class of 2001

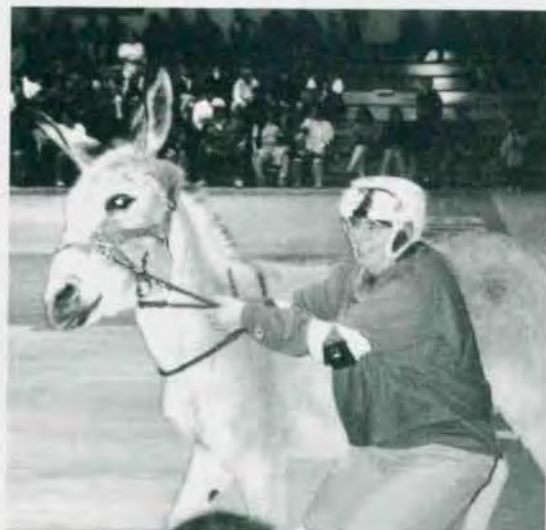

"We met as total strangers and end as lifetime friends, we shared a season of our lives, but every season has to end"

Some people come into our lives and quickly go.
 Some people move our souls to dance.
 They awaken us to new understanding with the passing whisper of their wisdom.

As the class of 2001, we dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Charron. She has always been there for us as an advisor but most of all, as a friend. She knows each of us and our life stories and always lends an ear if we need to talk. Mrs. Charron, you have meant a lot to all of us and we thank you for all the time and knowledge you have given to us.

Some people make the sky more beautiful to gaze upon.
 They stay in our lives for awhile,
 leave footprints on our hearts,
 and we are never, ever the same.

As the class of 2001, we dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Maxham. After several advisors in the 7th grade alone, the 8th grade brought him to our class. As a new teacher, he quickly earned the respect of the students and returns that respect to them. He is more than just our advisor and teacher; he has also become a friend. We are grateful for his five years of unselfish commitment.

Principal's Message

As you take your first steps into this new post-high school world, I wish you well. May your path be an easy one, bound by life's good things. May you offer the world the best that's in you to give, and have the best returned a thousand times. Congratulations and continued success in your future endeavors.

Ms. Kay

Associate Principal's Message

Congratulations to the Class of 2001! May you be happy, content, and successful in your future. Always remember that good things come to people who work hard and persevere through life's difficulties.

Two Thousand One

Until We Meet Again

For years now we have gone through thick and thin

Going to dances, and making new friends,

The time has come to go our separate ways

As life stretches out before us like a maze

The future is out there, beyond our small scope

While the years to come shine brightly with hope,

Now is the time to say our good byes,

As we take our last steps in the green and gold hallways.

Good- bye to friends to teachers to underclassmen,

Good-bye forever our senior year is almost at an end.

Until We Meet Again.....

By: Erin Reed

Untitled

Look to the memory of our past
Look to see how long we had to last.
The days were short, the nights were too,
These twelve long years now are through.

Try to remember all you can
Those days of preschool playing in the sand.
And elementary school was to decide,
The friends in which we could confide.

Junior high, oh what a start.
Why wasn't it cool to be smart?
And oh those last four wonder years,
That we spent with our smiling peers.

But now all is said and done,
Those years of tears and fun.
So, look away from the memory of our school we have left behind
To our lives that begin one at a time.

Time To Fly

Whenever I look in the mirror, I think what a good life I have.
The friends I have made that have helped me, in the good times and the bad. The day is almost here, to remember what's now in the past
Its time to realize the good things we've shared are now disappearing so fast.

We've been together ever since the beginning
In times of cooties and germs
We've been there through the fights and all the things we've learned.

Proms have passed, and field trips too
Although satisfied we never were,
Memories we've made will stay with us forever,
Even if all the years were a blur.

The time to fly is finally here
And we'll go our separate ways,
But what about the good times we shared?
Will we just throw them all away?

I wish I could tell you how much you all mean
But words just couldn't explain.
The luck that I wish every single one of you
Will hopefully replace the pain.

By: Nikki Bills

If We Must Leave

If we must leave let it be not with tears,
But with a sense of accomplishment and a circle of friends.
We've done so much throughout these years,
Thought everything with beginnings must also have ends.
If we must leave, O let us gracefully leave,
Standing tall with great dignity and style.
We will shine; our parents may grieve,
For they know we won't return to them for awhile
We'll step out bravely to the great unknown,
None of us sure of where we will go.
We must show the world we can do it alone.
We must show the world how much we know.
Like adults we will boldly face our New World
Instead of shying away like a scared boy or girl.

Senior Class Officers

The senior class officers have been a big help in the organization of our senior year. They have organized graduation, project graduation, prom, and our senior class trip. The effort these four have put in with the advice of our class advisors has made this year one that none of us can forget.

"We cannot stop the wind from blowing, but we can set our sails so it helps us on our way." ~Joan Walsh

Ashley Clark is our senior class president. She has been in the position for the last two years and has been secretary and vice president of our class.

Nicole Bills is our senior class vice president. Nikki was class president our sophomore year and has been student council treasurer for two years.

Kym Wenta is our senior class secretary. This is her first year as an officer and is doing a great job of keeping our whole senior class orderly.

Richard Rivers is our senior class treasurer. He has been in the position since the class of 2001's 7th grade year. He has done a terrific job!

Future Plans: Go to college in, near, or around Boston so I can start my acting career. Ultimately become rich and famous, come back and buy West Rutland and Rutland and re-name them Jake Land, and West Jake Land.

Will: To Ted Washburn my acting skills, soccer skills, and my ability to make an entire crowd laugh. To Sanchez, something so you will calm down. To FUBU and Nick, my ability to keep your cool in the game. To Matt Serrani my #14 soccer Jersey. Again to FUBU, a different brand of clothing. I will to Patty Ann the ability to find the best in everything (and for all the times I made you mad, I'm sorry). To Scotty, whatever common sense I may have. To my parents, about 75% of my love. I wouldn't be here without you. Thanx. The rest of my love to my friends. You

The Future Is Now.....2001 Prophecy

Billy Bennett & Melissa Majka sat and looked out onto the seascape before them. The fluorescent lights of Billy's enormously successful beachfront hotel buzzed on in the twilight. The setting sun caused Billy's candy apple red mustang convertible to glow. Melissa, owner of restaurant / tanning salon, gazed at the sea reflected on the days previous events. Billy gazed at his convertible. Matt Muro, lifeguard at Billy's beach front, had suggested earlier the three of them have the class of 2001 ten year reunion. They agreed unanimously and soon after sent out invitations. Jess Baker, always first on the scene, had planned on making an early appearance anyway. She was seeking Kim Biathrow's help, since Kim works as a cosmetologist at Melissa's shop and she was among the top ten in her field. Jess explained how she couldn't do anything with Mrs. Brown hair, (one of Jess' clients), so she brought her along for a closer inspection by Kim. Kim took one look in the varnished, pine box and said in a sympathetic tone, "I'll do what I can." Soon after Sarah Laliberte, accomplished pharmacist, walked in with Mitch Peters and Bryan Parker just a few steps behind. They had been pestering her since the end of flu season to create a new silicon based compound for a more flexible snowboard. "No for the last time!" she exclaimed. Mitch and Bryan offered to fund her research, with their lucrative Olympics and X - Games careers, they had the means to do it. Jon Hagan and Amy Jones follow the trio, engaged in a heated debate over the price of drafting pens. Jon complained that the prices at Amy's art supply store were too high, Amy in turn said that the supplies in her store were the best on the market and that he was a quack of an architect, referring to his last creation, a shopping plaza that vaguely resembled his car from high school.

Just then Beth Carini appeared in the doorway accompanied Katelynn Hogan. Beth still works with her therapy dogs, bringing a little happiness and comfort to all the children in Katelynn's pediatric ward. Beth took over the job after Katelynn's failed attempt with "therapy horses". Although a small child had his head crushed by the large animal, another Westside alumni found inspiration from the traumatic event. Infact, he now works for Troma Films. Justin Norton is now the master of special effects on the Troma set, winning an award for goriest and campiest massacre scene in a movie. Nicole Bills works closely with Justin on many occasions, since she has produced many of his movies. She is known as one of the toughest producers to work for, but also one of the best in business. She and Justin enter Melissa's little restaurant, still absorbed in their careers, as they discussed trying to get Jake Washburn to star in an upcoming film, even though he was known as a prima donna. Just then, Jake walked in and immediately began to complain about the lighting. Kym Wenta, Lori Smith, Kerri Schoenknecht, and Jon Carrara arrived together in a rouge stretch limo. Kym, Lori, Kerry, and Jon were the top execs of the fashion magazine "Rouge". Lori's sheik fashions are often featured "Rouge". Lori's statement is "casual, elegant, and short", but not the cloths, the models, which is why sometimes Kym will run the catwalk with Kerry. Kym's real job is public relations for "Rouge" and finding Jon the toughest jobs she can. Jon is Rouge's top reporter/journalist, who gets the dirt on, and the stories out of today's most successful stars. Liz Manning was one of the actresses to survive Jon's inquisitions. Jon later reported that he was "Happy to say that Liz is one of the few talented actors left in Hollywood, and actually the respectable honest person she pretends to be. "Suddenly, driving precariously close to the rouge limo was a semi - complete with trailer. Chris Renaud jumped out of the cab and towards the back of the trailer. Truckin' was his life and he loved it. Peter O'Bara lifted the hood to check the engine. Pete traveled with as his automotive technician. Chris raised the door and extended the trailer ramp and Kari Moser pokes her head out, with and ear to ear smile. She had gone in to education, becoming a kindergarten teacher and had her class of 24 children with her. No wait, those are her kids! Chris hopped back in his truck to park the massive, rumbling beast. He reached to blare his horn but it was drowned out by an earth shattering sound. Hearts shook in chests and everyone's ears pounded as Josh Webster pulled in. Josh had started a school for hopeful car audio technicians with his business degree he had earned, and a little help from Richard Rivers, who fine-tuned his management skills. Jonathan Boynton arrived soon after Josh. He had gotten a call about 200 stunned fish due to a high impact sound wave of some sort, so he went to investigate. Josh turned down his bass as Rudy, which was still his nickname, flashed his game warden badge. Then he noticed the wonderful food being prepared by Hilary Welch at Melissa's restaurant, so he decided to drop the investigation and join the party. Hilary was taking this as an undercover job, she is actually an FBI special agent, investigating some strange, local disturbances. Kyle Rodgers, respected music critic, caught a whiff of something peculiar, so he decided the food needed some closer inspection but he stopped dead in his tracks. "Froggy!" Kyle cringed, he thought everyone had forgotten about that. "It's frogMAN." He replied to Terry Prevendoski, a Princeton graduate and mathematics professor. Their chat was interrupted as Josh Belock piped up between them with a sea shanty that had been stuck in his head since 11th grade. Froggy recognized the tune and they went off singing. Terry wasn't left alone though, Kiel and Kurtis Moser, as well as Katie Chandler, had just arrived to join the festivities. Kiel and Kurtis have been nothing but successful since they had accepted the job as front-end managers at Price Chopper, and Katie is doing equally as well with her pet store. Ashley Clark and Connie Soung were near the last to arrive, Candace Sherrer and Jessica Barrows showed up soon after. Candace is coaching a girls' varsity basketball team and is one game away from the state championship. Jess Barrows - McClean, is the president of "Popstar Records", a boy band record label, and has employed Connie for tech support. Connie almost turned down the job since, through her software company, she could buy out "Popstar Records", but she never been one to turned down a friend. Ashley Clark, a top student from westside class of 2001, is still continuing her higher education, pursuing a Ph.D. in "Undecided". Erin Reed arrived just in time to take everyone's picture. Her photography career has taken off and there's no doubt she'll take this picture to competitions, just think, celebrities, scientists, great business successes, and humanitarians, in a single photograph. What are the chances of finding people like that, all in one place?

We want to thank Mr and Mrs Loomis for the hardwork and time that they put into every one of the productions. The Gym Fest 2000 would not of been such a great success without their dedication and commitment. They have always been there to listen to our problems and lend a helping hand. Their support goes above and beyond any teacher or drama advisor. They have put a mark in our lives and we'll never forget them. We'll miss them very much.

The Girls Junior Varsity team earned much respect this season from the varsity players and their peers. Through their hustle and dedication they learned to play as a team and proved that they knew their game of basketball. The J.V. girls were 13 and 5 this season. They took first place in two tournaments, The Rutland, Abby Carbine Tourney and their own West Rutland Tournament.

The Girls Varsity team worked hard this year. They ended up 8 and 13 for the season. They lost against the second seeded MSJ team in the play offs. Although the girls record may not show thier determination they have come a long way in the past few years. They have learned how to cooperate as a team and have been able to sucumb to the preasure of close game situations and pull off some victories. The biggest game this season for them was the last home game of the season in which they defeated their school rival, Proctor by 6 points. (39- 45)

Winter Carnival.....

Other Events !!

Tug of War

There were many events at the Winter Carnival this year. Many of them were enjoyed by all that attended. Some included tug of war, spirit walls, talent shows, board games, pie eating, and a tricycle race.

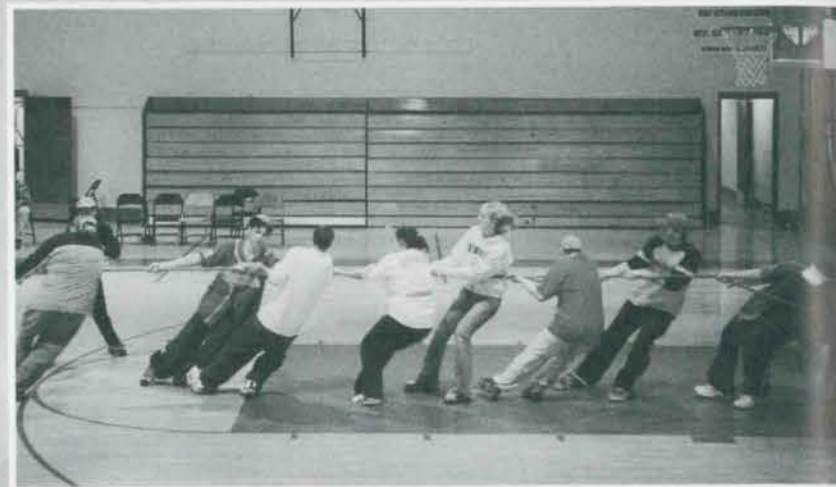

Winter Carnival this year was a lot of fun for everyone who participated! Thanks to the Student Council for all their hard work organizing all the events. Good job!

Talent Show

The Talent show, as always was fun for everyone who attended and participated. Each class showed their comical side, for example, the seniors who performed rendition of "Superstar."

Dominos

The seniors may have won the spirit walls and talent show, but here they are moments before losing the tug of war contest to the sophmores.

Monopoly

Everyone seems to be making lots of money at Monopoly.

Placing

- 1st place- seniors
- 2nd place- sophmores
- 3rd place- freshman
- 4th place- juniors

Kari as Piglet for the Senior's talent show. You better start petaling Kari!

Nicki, Sarah, Candace, and Jake got a lot of laughs!

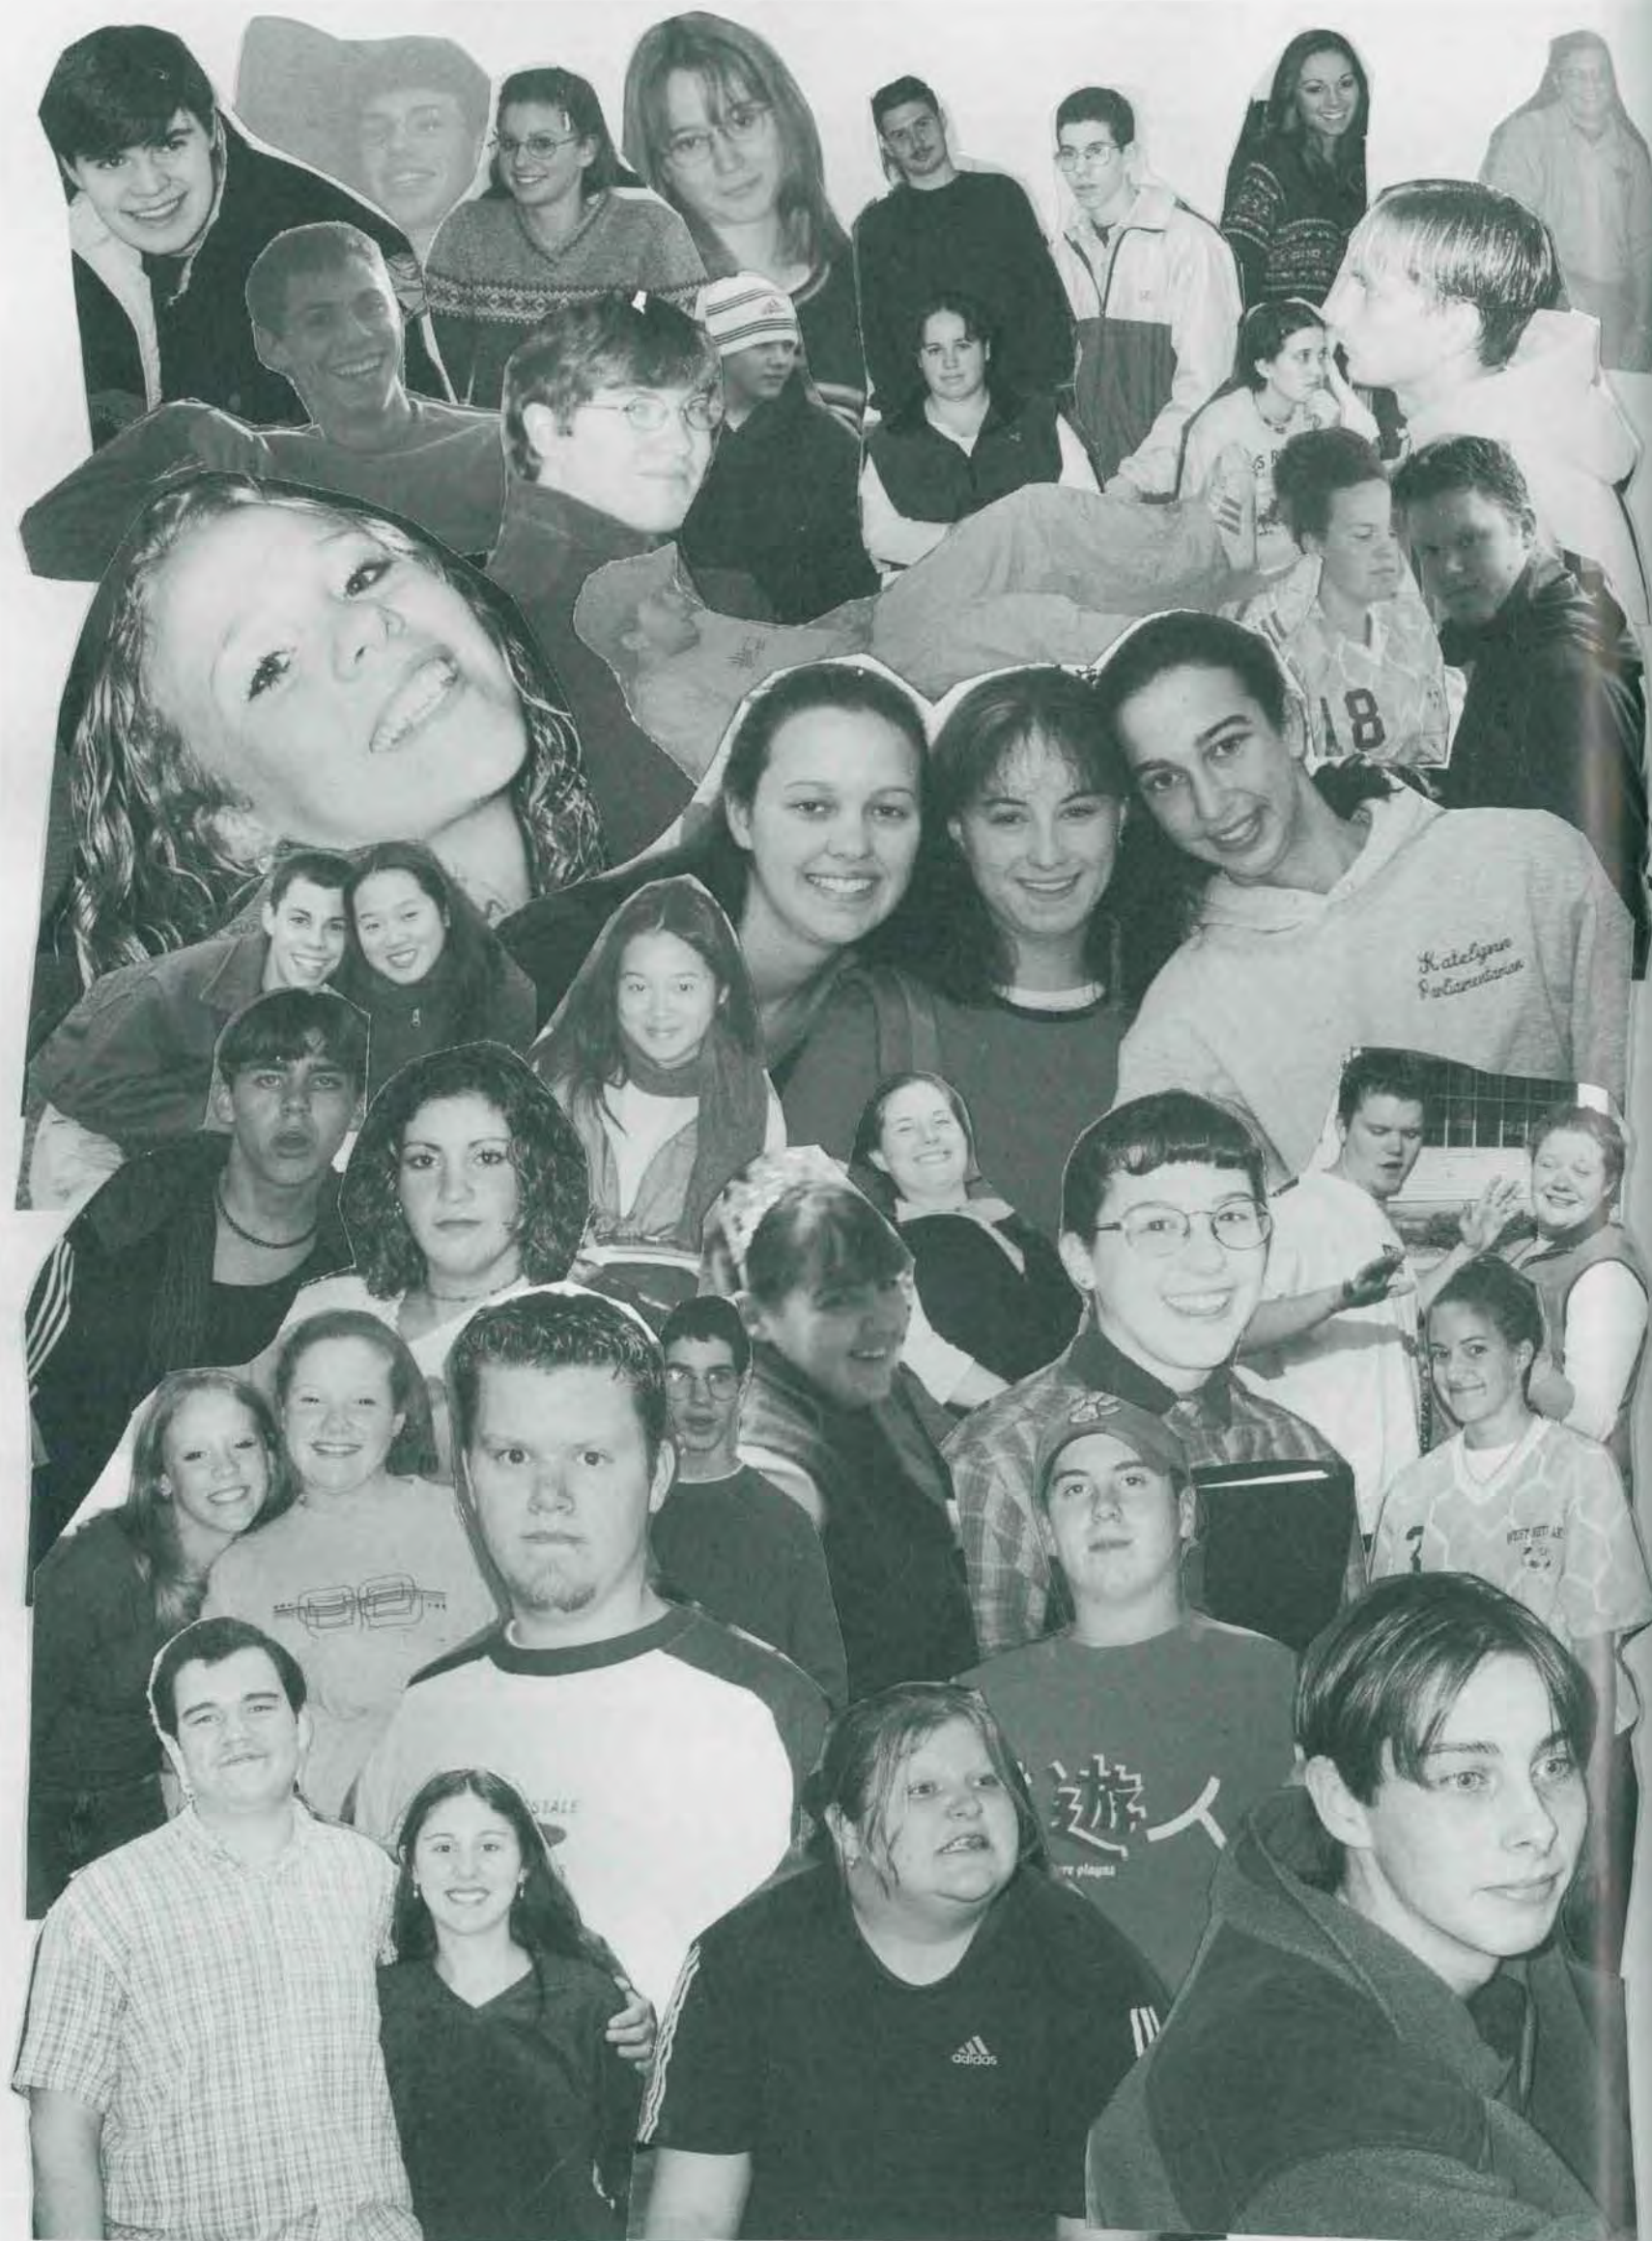

Jon won the show with his fabulous impression of Britney Spears.

And they're off!! Its the three legged race.

West Rutland hosted "Gymfest" 2000. It was the first regional drama festival to be held in a gymnasium. A total of four schools participated. We had an enjoyable and exuberant day! The other schools that attended the festival were Rutland, Randolph, and Twinfield. Randolph and Twinfield advanced to the State Festival. From Westside, Liz Manning, Connie Soung, and Justin Norton won acting awards making them eligible to participate in the next round. Justin attended the State festival at Hartford High.

Gymfest 2000

Our director, Mrs. Loomis, pictured here with her husband Mr. Loomis were big contributors to the festival. They were our concrete foundation to the whole process and we appreciate it very much. Thanks a lot!!

To the CLASS OF 2001,

You were my first and you touched my heart. I love you and wish you nothing but the best for all of you. The memories of 5th grade, debating, and Drama will always be forever a part of who I am, and I hope a part of who you are as well. (Now comes the goofy part, sorry-it's the musician in me.)

"Thanks for the Memories", "Put a little Love in your Heart", "You've Got a Friend", you are all "Some Kind of Wonderful", "We Are Family", and most importantly of all, "Unforgettable"!!!!

We Love You

Dear Kymberly - Joke & I are really proud of all your accomplishments and know your Dad father would be equally as proud.
You are an intelligent,
sensitive & gracious young woman with a bright future. The best is yet to come! We are always here for you
Love
Aunt Freda & Joke

The time from this picture until now seemed to go by in a flash. But really it was over 5000 unforgettable days filled with love, joy, happiness, adventure, excitement and memories, we will cherish forever.

Now that you are graduating the rest of the world will see how lucky we have been.

We wish you the best of life,
as always, and will always be here for you.

Your future is what you
make it and, knowing you,
it will be a great one.
Love, Mom & Dad

Kymberly,
May your dreams come true. Hoping you have success and happiness in your lifetime

Love,
John, Aggie, Shaun
& Eric Biczko

Congratulations Kym, for all you've accomplished in your School Career! Your loving nature has been a shining light. Since we first laid our eyes on you, all those years ago! We wish you Success in all the new beginnings you're about to encounter, as you continue to grow in God's love

We love you!
Reg. Jerry, Scott and Ryan

To a great sister, congratulations on graduating. I'll miss you and your help with Spanish.
Love,
Greg.

From the time you started to crawl.
Through the years of growing up.
We didn't think we'd see the day,
that you would actually graduate.
But son you did it, congratulations!
We are so proud of you.

We love you very much,
Love Mom, Dad, Sarah, Ashley and Marie

Josh, always follow your heart and dreams and do what you think is best.
Hopefully, the decisions you make will turn out right. Just don't forget we all make mistakes. But the clue is to learn from the mistakes and never give up.

Mom and Dad will try to be there if and when you ever need a little assistance in life. Just ask.

Mitch we love you and we are proud of you. Congratulation on Your Graduation Love always Mom, Dad and Tab

To my Little Brother,

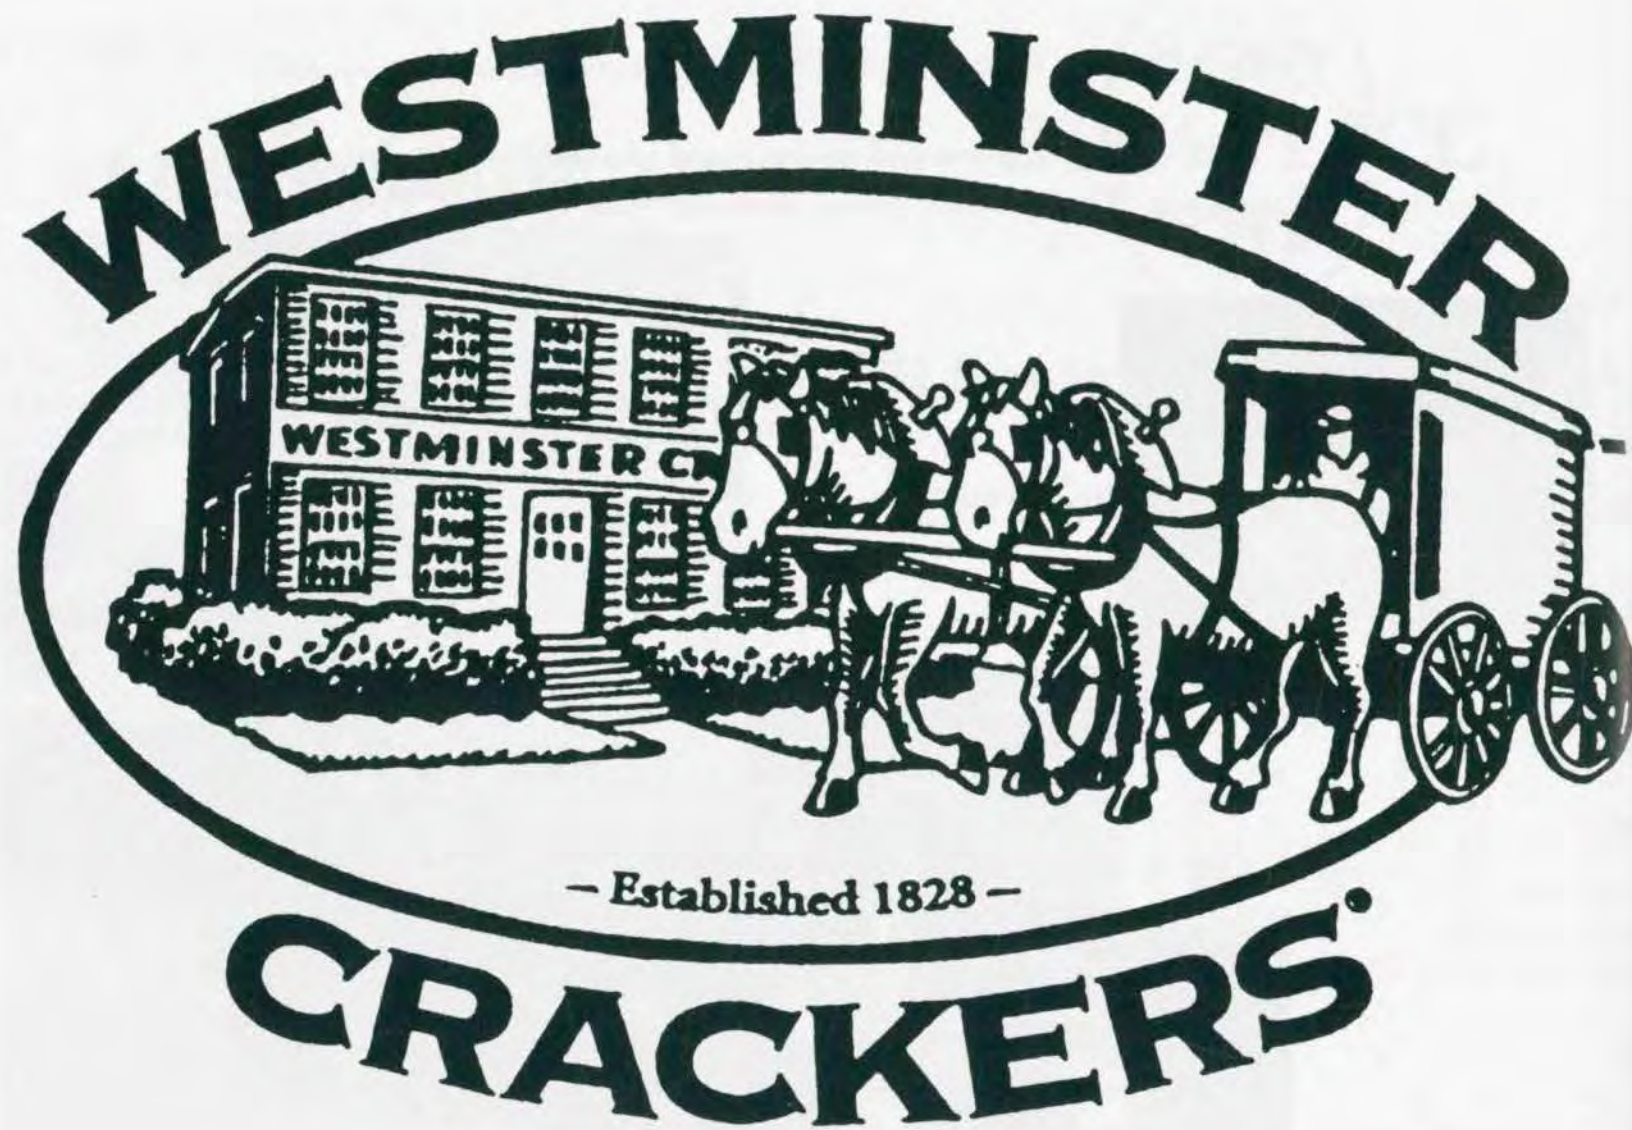

You have always been one of my best friends. You have been there for me no matter what, even if I did win most of the fights over the TV remote control, or when I made you sleep on the floor of the car during family road trips so I could have the whole back seat to myself. You were always my little protector in School when you thought anyone might be picking on me a little too much. I just want you to know that even if I complain about it, coming home to visit wouldn't be the same without you putting me in a headlock as soon as I walk through the door. Even though you're bigger than I am, you will always be my little brother. I love you and I am very proud of you. Congratulations Love Always Tab

Dear Mitch,

Your Papa & Nana Love you very much. We'll never forget our vacations with you to Florida, remember the dead bird sandwich, the cabbage patch kid you named. You were always such fun to have around. Always be true to your self and don't change. Love you Nana & Papa

Mitch,

It means so very much to have you, not only as a nephew, but also as my godchild. We have always loved you and are so proud of you. Do you remember when you were two, you and your family stopped at my house on the way home from Mass? We asked you where you lived and you answered, so proudly West Rutland Massachusetts! We couldn't stop laughing. Don't ever change! Love You Always Aunt Karleene, Uncle Gary, Tonya & Kylee

Candace,

To our middle daughter, seems like yesterday we were doing this for your sister. Life does fly by. So our thoughts to you are to work even harder, but also remember to enjoy life to the fullest, follow your dreams and especially to have fun. Candace, always remember no matter what, we will always be there for you.

We Love You!!

Love Dad, Mom, Randi, & Ashley

Congratulations Jake

We are very proud of who you are and know you will succeed in accomplishing your goals in life. Keep them laughing!!!
Love Dad, Mom & Ted

Ashley,

Your years of childhood passed much too quickly but no mother has ever been more blessed than I. It has been an honor watching you grow into the beautiful young woman that you are, on the inside and out. Regardless of where your life takes you; my heart, love and support will be there to protect you and keep you safe. Hold fast to your dreams and stay true to yourself. Never stop loving, believing or dreaming your dreams. I love you and will miss you so very much.

All My Love,
Mom

Sarah,

You're a scholar, an athlete, and a good friend. You've taken bold steps towards your future with determination and grace. I am very proud of the young lady you have become.

Love, Dad

Best wishes to the "Blanchard Avenue Gang".
(Laura, Caryn, Sarah and Megan)

Bryan,

You accomplished something special and it is just a start. You've shown you have lots of spirit, lots of heart and what you are made of and what you can do.

Thank you for being our grandson and staying in school. We're proud of you.

Love always,

Congratulations to a wonderful daughter. We are always proud of you! We look forward to seeing you at the worlds. Grandpa would be amazed!
Love Mom & Dad

Jessica,

From the first moment we held you in our arms, to the day you spread your wings, we have watched you take steps of uncertainty to steps of self-assurance and we have been proud of you all the way. You are about to embark on your future and make your own choices. We will always be here to share in your dreams and console you in your disappointments. We look forward to watching you continue to grow and choose your future. We hope you have been given the best foundation to make your choices and remember that we love you and we are always here for you.

Lots of Love,
Mom, Dad & Keith

Congratulations Class of 2001!!

Jessica,

We are very proud of you to make it this far. Keep up the good work. We know if you try, you can make it in the days to come.

I love you!

Love always, Ashley

To all of our teachers; past and present,
You have helped us grow both as students and as individuals. Teachers don't often get the appreciation they deserve, but we realize we wouldn't be here without your help. From Kindergarten to our final year of high school, we have been pushed along by your motivation and dedication. You have taught us and entertained us for twelve years. Thank you for teaching us about life. The knowledge we've gained from you will forever be with us in our lives. Thank you.

To the class of 2001,

What do I say to the Class of 2001, my class, my friends? The time has finally come for us to go our separate ways, leaving so much behind. We have shared many years of laughter and a few tears as well. We have been lucky to have found such great classmates and friends.

As we all leave our childhood behind to live as young adults, I am confident each of us will meet with great success. Since as long as I can remember, we have had a reputation of being a good class. We should be proud of who we have been, who we are, and who we will become.

"Who knows how long this will last now that we've come so far so fast, but somewhere in the dust is that same old town in each of us."
